

We are halfway through the year

It's mid-July already, can you believe it?

The last month alone has been an interesting ride as we are slowly getting back to our new norm. Cafe's and offices are re-opening with strict COVID-safe guidelines and here at Corney & Lind we are no exception. We are back in our office, ready to serve and expectant for the next phase.

Till we meet in-person, stay safe, practice good hygiene and here's to the next half of 2020.

Our Pick of Legal Articles

Understanding JobKeeper enabling direction

What is a 'jobkeeper enabling direction'?
The Coronavirus Economic Response Package Omnibus (Measures No. 2) Act 2020 inserts a new Part 6-4C into the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth).

This new provision allows employers to give employees directions and make certain requests of them – what is referred to as a 'jobkeeper enabling direction'.

Read Here

Sorry Not Sorry! Employer protection for apologies and expressions of regret.

The Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003 (the Act) establishes a workers' compensation scheme for Queensland – providing benefits for workers who sustain an injury in their employment.

Read here

Is voluntary administration an option for my business?

Whether your business is struggling to pay its creditors due to the impacts of COVID-19 or for any other reasons, a looming question arises as to whether there are any options that can be undertaken to save your business.

One such option worth exploring is a process called Voluntary Administration.

Read here

How to respond when you find out someone is experiencing Domestic or Family Violence

Domestic and family violence comes in many forms and is a serious issue for communities.

If you know or suspect a friend, family or neighbour who is suffering from domestic violence, we have created some Tips of Do's & Don't to help.

Read more here & here

C&L Upcoming Webinar

Good governance practice and reporting obligations to the ACNC.

Tuesday, 4 August 2020 @ 12:30pm

Join Director Nina Flewell-Smith as she discusses good governance and reporting obligations to the ACNC - Refresher tips for young/ or small churches

FREE REGISTRATION

Visit our website

