

Legal Update

The case of University of Queensland & Anor v Y [2020] QCA 216 provides insight into the prospects of contractual obligations of learning institutions for students who have since left or graduated.

Read Here

Three key changes to the QLD Criminal Code relating to sexual offences reform

The Criminal Code (Child Sexual Offences Reform) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2020 assented to Parliament on 14 September 2020. We summarise three key changes to the Code which have arisen from the amendments.

Read Here

NEXT WEBINAR: CHILD PROTECTION UPDATE

Date: 2 March 2021

Time: 5.30pm

This webinar will discuss:

- A refresher on the Education (General Provisions) Act and Child Protection Act mandatory reporting regimes.
- Board obligations v principal/teacher obligations
- Penalties for failure to report
- New provisions in QLD criminal code - failure to report and failure to protect
- National Redress Scheme / child abuse civil litigation update
- Board role in developing child safe culture

This webinar will be presented by Jessica Lipsett, Senior Associate.

Free Registration Here

FOLLOWING WEBINAR: CONVERSION THERAPY

Date: 15 June 2021

Time: 5.30pm

This webinar will discuss:

- QLD's health legislation regarding conversion therapy - legislation update.
- Impact on faith based schools expression of belief/statement of faith
- Practical implications for student counselling
- Penalties applicable
- Reviewing school policy

This webinar will be presented by Alistair Macpherson, Managing Director.

Free Registration Here

Corney & Lind Lawyers Pty Ltd | Suite 43 - Reception, Level 4, Royal Brisbane Place, Herston, QLD
4006 Australia

Unsubscribe {recipient's email}

Update Profile | Customer Contact Data Notice

Sent by margherita.lamur@corneyandlind.com.au